Oscar is a tabby cat that happily lives in his cozy home with a child and lots of toys. He loves to climb and jump on everything, and one day he jumps to the moon. There he finds mysterious lunar cats drinking milk out of the moon s craters. But those who drink the milk of the moon learn they will never return to Earth."

Review

"Ceccoli "incorporates . . . collage elements . . . into elaborately worked digital starscapes that have a convincingly 3-D look." "Kirkus Reviews, "on the English-language edition"

"The appealing illustrations are in a league of their own . . . sure to draw children into an out-of-this world adventure." "Booklist, "on the English-language edition" About the Author

Lynda Gene Rymond graduated from the California College of the Arts and has held numerous diverse jobs, all while making art and writing stories and poems. Nicolette Ceccoli has illustrated many books and has been the winner of numerous awards in Italy and the United States.
